

Sylvan Esso

After an incredible sold out performance in September at the Green Door Store, Male-female duo, Sylvan Esso return to Brighton and are bigger than ever bringing us their catchy electro pop, which balances electronic sounds with warm vocal melodies. Their 2014 self-titled debut album topped many critics' end of year lists.

2 June — Komedija

Supported by Foreign Skin

Du Blonde

The new incarnation of Beth Jeans Houghton – Du Blonde – returns with new album, Welcome Back To Milk, showcasing a fiercer, heavier rock sound; a departure from her initial baroque pop style. "she's swapped psych-folk for the sound of a load of cymbals being knocked over in a sticky-floored rock club." – The Guardian

3 June — Green Door Store

Support to be announced

Resident Music / Dome Box Office* / Union Music, Lewes* / Vinyl Frontier, Eastbourne*
Pebbles, Eastbourne* / Music's Not Dead, Bexhill* / seetickets.com / ticketweb.co.uk
Age restrictions may apply. *Selected shows

Eddie Argos: I formed a band

A spoken word presentation by lead singer Eddie Argos of Art Brut about his experiences in the music industry and on how to form a band and become famous. "Full of the bathetic genius that English pop used to excel in" – The Guardian

16 June — Komedia
+ DJ set

Grasscut

Critically acclaimed electronic/ambient duo consisting of Marcus O'Dair and Andrew Phillips return to hometown Brighton. "Grasscut are the perfect riposte for those who doubt electronic music's capacity to be romantic, nostalgic and human" – Mojo

17 June — Otherplace at the Basement

Piney Gir

Kansas born, London based singer-songwriter Piney Gir returns to Brighton and with new album "Mr. Hyde's Wild Ride", twelve pop stories about a young woman coming to terms with the hope and regret that accompanies loss and love. "Varying emotions and mutations are part of her unexpected strength" – Mojo.

17 June — Green Door Store