We love all kinds of music and we love sharing it with you. Our range of gigs is eclectic, all with one thing in common, the MV seal of approval. Here are a couple of upcoming shows we think are going to be very special — check them out!

Manu Delago Handmade

Wednesday 29 March
The Hope & Ruin

Celebrated percussionist, producer and composer Manu Delago returns to Brighton to mark the release of his third solo album, 'Metromonk' (Tru Thoughts). 'Metromonk' finds this boundary-testing artist distilling and delicately exploring extremes of dynamics and mood; manipulating the Hang drum in experimental and inventive ways, the many voices and tones of this rare instrument are given top billing among a minimalistic palette of beats and acoustic sources.

Hannah Peel

Wednesday 5 April
The Prince Albert

The Northern Irish artist, singer and electronic composer and member of the The Magnetic North, Hannah Peel released her new solo album 'Awake But Always Dreaming' to great acclaim at the end of 2016, with Q Magazine describing the album as a 'sublime electronic opus' in their 4 star review. We welcome her very special headline show in Brighton!
