

Wednesday 25 February — The Hope
PINS
+ The Black Tambourines
+ Dream Wife

Wednesday 4 March — Komedia Studio
Chris Wood
+ Tim Keegan + Ez Stone

Saturday 14 March — St. George's Church
Courtney Pine
& Zoe Rahman
Thursday 19 March — Komedia
Radioland: Kraftwerk's
Radio-Activity Revisited

Thursday 19 March — Komedia Studio
RONIJA
+ support

Wednesday 25 March — Komedia Studio
Tom Williams
+ The Fiction Aisle
+ Bella Spinks

Friday 3 April — The Hope (FREE)
bitbin with Melting Vinyl!
Electrowork
+ Champion Fever + VCOADSR (DJ set)
Monday 11 May — Spiegelkett
BUNTY
(MULTIMOS LIVE full AV show feat. VJ metalluna)

Wednesday 15 April — Komedia
Polar Bear
+ Leafcutter John

Tuesday 19 May — Green Door Store
Aquaserge + support
Wednesday 20 May — Komedia
LAU + Ella the Bird

Sunday 24 May — Concorde 2
The Julie Ruin
+ Slum of Legs
Tuesday 26 May — Komedia Studio
Marina Celeste
+ Zrazy

Tuesday 26 May – Komedie Studio
Supported by Zrazy Magazine.

Marina Celeste
Beautifully crafted French pop and saxophone pop, Soft Machine, Frank Zappa. The result is something wholly original.

Aquaserge
French psych-experimental-pop from Aquaserge, containing members of Stereolab and Tame Impala. Wanting to explore different pockets of rock, a mixture of influences was established – navigating between the kraut giants

Sunday 24 May – Concorde 2
Supported by Slum of Legs
they can do with it." Pitchfork confident in their legacy and what "This is the sound of musicians

The Julie Ruin
Feminist punk icon Kathleen Hanna (Bikini Kill, Le Tigre) returns with her new project The Julie Ruin – a classic of subversive pop.

2014 Mercury-nominated Polar Bear, return to Brighton with their experimental jazz, loads of left-field writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 20 May – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

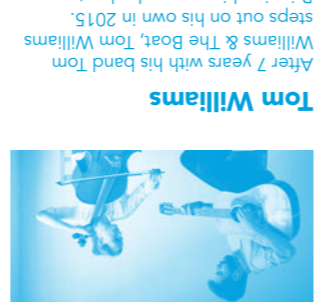

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

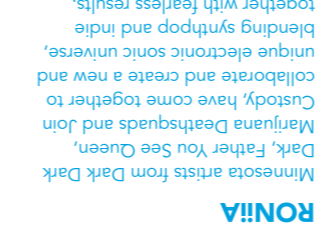

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

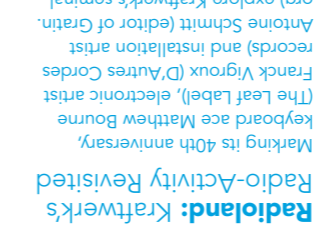

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

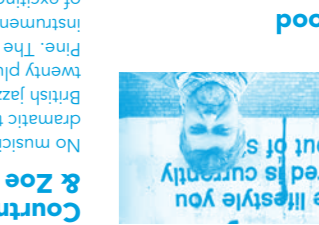

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Wednesday 25 February – The Hope
Supported by The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks.
Supported by Leafcutter John

Friday 3 April – The Hope (FREE)
Supported by Ella the Bird
music made them an instant hit live. soaring sounds and energy in their synth based collisions through to brutal but melodic outputs.

Electroworx
bitbin with Melting Vinyl
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Thursday 19 March – Komedie Studio
Supported by Ella the Bird
Minnesota artists from Dark Dark Dark, Father You See Queen, Marijuana Deathsquads and John Custody, have come together to collaborate and create a new and unique electronic sonic universe, blending synthpop and indie performance, with tailored visual element, for the first time ever.

Wednesday 15 April – Komedie Studio
Supported by Leafcutter John
After 7 years with his band Tom Williams & The Boat, Tom Williams steps out on his own in 2015. Bringing his personal edge to song writing to the stage with his solo project which is full-blooded, with a bit of heart, soul and character.

Music, music and more music...

A happy 2015 from us at Melting Vinyl. With fantastic new shows lined up and right at your doorstep!

From Radioland to Polar Bear to the re-scheduled The Julie Ruin show, there's the usual MV mix for everyone :)

Tickets always go pretty fast, so book early to avoid disappointment, and give yourselves a new year treat; one that is not unhealthy and instead a culturally and musically enriching experience!

Don't ever hesitate to get in touch with suggestions and thoughts; it's always great to hear from you as you keep us in a job we love

@meltingvinyl / @EBGoeslive / fb melting.vinyl

Dates with your date — or friend, or your lovely self...

Wednesday 25 February — The Hope
PINS + The Black Tambourines + Dream Wife

Wednesday 4 March — Komedie Studio
Chris Wood + Tim Keegan + Ez Stone

Saturday 14 March — St. George's Church
Courtney Pine & Zoe Rahman

Thursday 19 March — Komedie
Radioland: Kraftwerk's Radio-Activity Revisited

Thursday 19 March — Komedie Studio
RONiia + support

Wednesday 25 March — Komedie Studio
Tom Williams + The Fiction Aisle + Bella Spinks

Friday 3 April — The Hope (FREE)
Electroworx
bitbin + Adolescent + Pollen + Champion Fever + VCOADSR (DJ set)

Monday 11 May — Spiegeltent
BUNTY
(MULTIMOS LIVE full AV show feat. VJ metaLuna)

Wednesday 15 April — Komedie
Polar Bear + Leafcutter John

Tuesday 19 May — Green Door Store
Aquaserge + support

Wednesday 20 May — Komedie
LAU + Ella the Bird

Sunday 24 May — Concorde 2
The Julie Ruin + Slum of Legs

Tuesday 26 May — Komedie Studio
Marina Celeste + Zrazy

Come on let's go — get your tickets!

Tickets for Melting Vinyl shows are available from the following outlets, and the venue Box Office where possible. Age restrictions vary. See you there!

ticketweb.co.uk/meltingvinyl
Resident Music — 01273 606 312
Dome Box Office* — 01273 709 709
Union Music* — 01273 474 053
Music's Not Dead, Bexhill* — 01424 55243
The Vinyl Frontier, Eastbourne* — 01323 410313
Pebbles, Eastbourne* — 01323 430304

seetickets.com
selected shows*
Get Involved with MV...
Bands / Artists / DJs / Interns / Photographers / Illustrators — visit meltingvinyl.co.uk and send us a message.

meltingvinyl.co.uk tw MVDE IN BRIGHTON

Melting Vinyl February—June 2015 Brighton / Eastbourne / Kent

